BY PRESIDENT WILSON SEPTEMBER 1

Log cabin in which Great Emancipator was born.

Over the entrance doors of Memorial Hall, which enshrouds the log cabin in which Lincoln was born, are inscribed the following words: "Here over the log cabin where Abraham Lincoln was born, destined to preserve the Union and to free the slave, a grateful people have dedicated this memorial to unity, peace and brotherhood between the states." On September 1st President Wilson and party will journey to Hodgenville, Laury county, Kentucky, to accept in the name of the people of the United States the Lincoln Farm and Lincoln Memorial Hall, which contains the Great Emancipator's birthplace.

SHERIFF WHEELER IN LETTER TELLS OF MANY POINTS NOW AT ISSUE

Letter Declares That Co-operation Between Sonora Officials and His Office Has Helped to Reduce Crime.

The following letter from Sheriff Harry C. Wheeler was received yesterday. It is an exposition of certain campaign points which have been under much consideration here of late.

The letter, in full, follows:
Tombstone, Arizona, Aug. 20, 1916.
Editor Bisbee Review, Bisbee, Ariz.
Dear Sir—In your issue of August 19th Mr. McDonald's open letter was shown to me. After carefully reading the letter I can only conclude that an analysis was drawn upon some of my own statements as contained in my postal cards to the voters of this county.

In my card I spoke of the friendly co-operation existing between my office and the Sonora officials.

Mr. McDonald said: "I fail to see any connection between the friendship of Sonora officials and enforcement of our own laws." Now when I recall the fact that the arrest of Maldonado (murderer of Officer Brooks) was made in Cananea, at my request, that this arrest indirectly cost the lives of a dozen Mexican police, that Maldonado's extradition was signed in the trenches while under heavy fire at the Salcedo battle, by General Calles. Considering these facts it would seem that the good will of foreign officials is at times necessary, even to the enforcement of our own laws, here in Arizona.

Furthermore, when we succeeded in having two hundred of Calles' wounded removed to safety on our side, in face of the Yaqui attack, at Naco, a gratitude was earned from the Mexicans which has been often manifested by General Calles in particular.
Counties on either side of us, though having troops have been raided.
Santa Cruz county, Columbus, New Mexico and in Texas. We have been fortunate so far—whatever reason may exist.

I was the first man to call for U. S. troops, closely followed by the Douglas Chamber of Commerce, several years now past.

We owe much to the U. S. troops and I, as sheriff, deeply appreciate their presence, and I am most grateful to them; from General Davis down to the privates—for the sense of security they give and the actual protection due to their very presence here on our border. Yet the commanding officer in a letter to me plainly states: "We are interested only in violations of the laws of the United States and cannot take part in the internal affairs of a state."

Thus, even with such great backing as our troops afford, there is still work to be performed by our own local authorities.

Mr. McDonald says further: "We have sufficient laws" and he believes in "law enforcement."

I agree with him; only while we have a sufficiency of laws. No one can deny that our gambling and prohibition laws require fixing in order that said laws can be really enforced by our local officials without the necessity of resorting to outside aid or assistance.

Mr. McDonald says further: "The office of sheriff possesses no judicial nor legislative functions!" If Mr. McDonald ever becomes sheriff, he will wish the office did possess such functions—because a sheriff is really helpless in trying to enforce inadequate laws. This is the very reason I am endeavoring to secure better laws from those who do possess legislative functions.

Mr. McDonald's last statement that "Under no circumstances will he ask a third term" would seem to imply a wrong in any one who does ask a third term.

I do not believe I am doing wrong in again seeking this office. I feel I am better qualified now to perform my duties than I was two years ago.
Before I came into office, sheriffs drew three times the present salary which I receive.

Again there are many good officials from Governor down seeking a third term.

In both our neighboring states, New Mexico and California, a term is four years—or equal to two terms in this state.

In giving my reasons to the voters along with my request for their support, I did not criticize any one, and I will not in the future attempt to injure any one.

Jimmy McDonald is a good man and a good official. So also is Sam Hay-burn a good man and officer.

Lew Wright is a splendid fellow.
All are good friends of mine. If I am to be defeated by any of the boys above mentioned, I am sure that Cocaine county will have a sheriff to be fully depended upon.

Respectfully,
HARRY C. WHEELER,
Present Sheriff.

Douglas Man Returns From Big Property and Tells of Large Ore Bodies.

DOUGLAS, Aug. 22.—S. P. Applewhite returned home yesterday from a ten days' visit in Jerome where he went with his mother, who left Mr.
Applewhite yesterday at Tucson to return home on the Southern Pacific.
She had visited with Mr. Applewhite and his family here before going to Jerome for a visit with another son, Frank Applewhite.

Mr. Applewhite said today that the United Verde Extension mine continues to show increased ore bodies, and improvements in every way.
He regards the property as the great wonder of the southwest so far as mining development is concerned. He was in Jerome for ten days and visited all interesting points in that vicinity, including the new town of Clarksdale where is located the new smelting plant of the United Verde. This is a modern reduction plant and is operating with great success.

Speaking of the political opinion encountered on his trip Mr. Applewhite said that he found strong sentiment favorable to George Otney for governor at Jerome and learned that this sentiment was prevailing throughout northern Arizona.

CASE AGAINST JEFF
DUNNIGAN TAKES TIME
OF SUPERIOR COURT

Action Takes Up the Entire Day in Court and Is Not Completed As Yet—Many Marriage Licenses Issued.

TOMBSTONE, Aug. 22. (Special).— The attention of the Superior Court was taken up today in the trial of the case of Jeff Dunnigan, of Douglas, who is charged with selling a bottle of whiskey to A. J. Bruce in Douglas on the 21st day of June. The jury selected to try the case was composed of the following: J. A. Fitch, James Lamb, M. C. Costello, William Lutley, R. W. S. Gibbs, Harry Macia, Arthur Noiman, C. W. Drew, Hal H. Hart, D.
C. Julian, Jack Cramer and B. Keynolds. The case took up the entire day.
A question was raised as to whether or not the application for the liquor license was properly authenticated or not, and it took quite a while this afternoon for the attorneys to look into the question.

There is a rumor here to the effect that an application will be made before Judge O'Connor, at Nogales, for a writ of habeas corpus in the O. S.
French case, and that it is to be heard on Friday the 25th. So far there has been no official notice received here and no copy of the writ has been served on Sheriff Wheeler.

Taking Examinations.
Superintendent Minnis Lintz is today conducting the regular quarterly teachers' examination for those who wish to teach the coming term. Those who are taking the examination are, Norton E. Higgins, of Rucker; Ethel Brake, of Douglas; Rheanna Jones, Benson; Mary E. Rogers, of Bisbee; Clara Shrum, of Douglas; Helen Hubbard, of Douglas; Eunice Anderson, of Erie; Willie D. England, of Douglas, and Mrs. H. F. McClelland, of Tombstone. The examination is being held at the public school building.

Marriage Licenses.
The following marriage licenses have been issued out of the clerk's office during the past few days: Sam Filipovich, to wed Calra Cokljat, both of Lowell; Albert M. Benoit, to wed Marie Lynch, both of Douglas; J. I.
Houser, to wed Mrs. Willie Moore, both of Douglas; Patrick Quinn, of Douglas, to wed Maude Duncan, of Springfield, Mo.; Robert E. Mackey, of Douglas, to wed Cella D. Mackey, of Grand Rapids, Michigan; Daniel McGowan, of Hereford, to wed Annie Clinton, also of Hereford.

Has Busy Day.
Clerk of the Board of Supervisors A.
C. Karger and his assistants had a busy day today in filing and checking up the numerous petitions that were sent in of candidates who wished to have their names placed on the ballots at the coming primary election. Besides this, he put a force of men at work making up the tax rolls for the coming year as the rate has now been fixed by the board. The work will be rushed, as the law allows but a short time in which to complete the work and turn the books over to the county treasurer.

REWARD—$5.00 for return to police or home, 758, 5th St., Douglas, Ariz., upper teeth large and separated; wore soldier's hat with blue cord;

DOUGLAS MEXICAN IS HELD TO HIGH COURT;

Luis Padrones Remanded to the Action of the Federal Court for Taking Mexican Girl to El Paso, Texas.

DOUGLAS, Aug. 22.—As a result of his preliminary hearing yesterday afternoon before United States Commissioner H. C. Beumler, Luis Padre-res, of Pirtleville, was held to the action of the November term of the federal court on a white slavery charge. The defendant was charged with taking Filomena Salcido, a pretty 15-year-old girl of Pirtleville, to El Paso and keeping her there a month.

At the hearing yesterday the girl appeared against Padrones and told her experience. She is soon to become a mother. Padrones admitted he took the girl with him to El Paso, but said he had the consent of her parents to do so. He says they stayed with his uncle while in El Paso. He is married, but declares he wants to marry the Salcido girl as soon as he can get a divorce from his wife.

When Padrones was arraigned last week following his arrest his bond was placed at $500, which he made. Following the hearing yesterday it was increased to $1,000, but he promptly furnished the bond.

"Mickey" Anderson, charged with selling cocaine to soldiers, was held to the action of the federal court, with bond at $500. He was unable to furnish the bond and last night was taken to Tucson by Deputy United States Marshal J. F. McDonald to be placed in jail to await his trial.

Leland S. Poole, a member of the Eleventh Infantry, who was arrested last week on the charge of deserting his wife and children at Washington, D. C., was also taken to Tucson by Mr. McDonald, and from there will be returned to Washington to stand trial in the federal court. Poole's record in the army was excellent. He says he left his wife only after she had deserted him for another man.

A. R. McAdamson, charged with selling whiskey to a member of the Indian company of the Arizona National guard, in Douglas, July 4, is still in the city jail. His preliminary hearing will be held as soon as certain witnesses can be secured.

"THE SOWERS" CALLED
BEST OF BIG PICTURES

Blanche Sweet Makes Particularly Good in Picturization of Exceptional Novel.

Blanche Sweet in the thrilling story of Russian political intrigue, will again be the attraction at the Royal today in the Jesse L. Lasky production of "The Sowers," founded upon Henry Seton Merriman's novel of the same name, written especially for Miss Sweet by the noted dramatist, Marion Fairfax, and produced under the direction of Wm. C. De Mille. Miss Sweet, one of the most popular photo-dramatic stars, was recently seen in "The Ragamuffin" and "The Black-List." In the first she was a child of the slums, and in the second the daughter of a poor miner. In "The Sowers" she is seen as a member of a royal Russian household and will have an opportunity to display many beautiful gowns.

"The Sowers," dealing with the movement to free the serfs from oppression, gives wonderful material for a photodrama, intense, gripping and unusual. The Lasky company always noted for its accuracy and attention to details, has gone even further in the production of "The Sowers." A former costumer in the Imperial Court at Petrograd was secured to design the military uniforms and gowns worn throughout the production. During the tremendous scenes in the Royal Palace, all of the interior scenes are exact replicas of the rooms either in the palace at Petrograd or some of the other domiciles of the Imperial family.

Miss Sweet is surrounded by a cast of unusual excellence. The prince with whom she is in love, and whom she renounces so that he may marry according to his rank, is played by Thomas Meighan, the Lasky leading man, who recently made such a hit in "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine." Among others in the cast are Theodore Roberts, Mabel Van Buren, Canille Astor, Horace B. Carpenter, Ernest Joy and other members of the Lasky all-star organization. The photodrama is of the usual Lasky excellence and the entire photodrama is said to be one of the most strutting and unusual productions ever seen on a screen.
